

National FAA Safety Team presents:

AirVenture 2023 Forum - Benefits of Home-Based Simulators

A fun and informative look at the benefits of home-based simulators for the GA pilot. See how you can inexpensively remain current, learn and practice procedures, prepare for new licenses, IPC's and Flight Reviews, and streamline checkouts in new airplanes. Explore the various options available for any budget and find out what the FAA considers acceptable for currency purposes.

- See how home-based simulators can help you stay current;
- Learn what procedures work best in the simulator environment;
- Learn what simulator programs are economically available;
- See how you can prepare and practice for new licenses and ratings;
- Learn how you may stay current by using simulators

WINGS/AMT credit available!

To receive WINGS/AMT credit fill out attendance sheet available at the Forum entrance.

Directions: The FAA Safety Center is centrally located on the EAA AirVenture grounds on the South side of the control tower. We are the large tan building with the rooftop deck facing the runway. Forums entrance is on the west side of the building.

Prior to attending a safety seminar, please review and abide by current CDC, State and local health guidelines.
